NEWSPAPER LAW.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers wish their papers discontinued, publishers may continue to send them until all charges are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office or place to which they are sent, they are held responsible until they take their bills and give due notice to discontinue.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, they are held responsible. Notice should be given of the removal.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take the paper from the office is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

We suggest the following amendment to the Democratic platform:

"Free trade in whisky only, and a tariff for revenue."

The first woman setting foot in Carbonate, Colorado, was welcomed by the miners in a substantial sort of way. Among other tokens of their appreciation were a town lot, a mining claim and money to buy a silk dress.

The Republican party must now be doubly watchful. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch is alarmed lest President Arthur "will read the Republican paper." The Democratic press seem deeply concerned for the welfare of the Republican party.

Dr. Dorsey would submit to about one more interview the New York World would be set mainly in caps and italics. It is a great believer in Dorsey, and doesn't hesitate to slander men in their graves. The world seems to know whom to kick and whom to pet.

DANA of the New York Sun has been yelling for some time to "turn the rascals out." Watterson of the Courier-Journal has been blowing the same note, and now the chief executive of Kentucky responds by pardoning two of the most desperate convicts in the penitentiary of that state.

JUDGE GRESHAM stands alone by the throttle-rod of the machine at Washington. But there is not a jar, and every wheel turns with precision. For a fact, it is the most wonderful and the biggest country in this world, and the man or woman who is not proud of it has neither good sense or patriotism.

The New York Sun is not pleased with the honor that has just been conferred on General Sheridan by presenting him with a house at Washington, and thinks he ought to be very angry about it. The editor of the Sun never had a house presented to him, or he might look at the matter in a different light.

The New York Herald, an independent paper, which has hitherto favored Hoosier, considers the charge made by "Jayhawk" or J. H. Woodard, a very grave one and says: "Woodard's story is absolutely false, or else the Ohio Democrats ought at once to put some else at the head of their ticket."

There is an excellent illustration of what the usual Democratic cry of fraud means. The Mississippi Post says it reminds it of the following: "Colonel Thompson, of Napoleon, arose during a little four-handed game and exclaimed with indignation: 'There is cheating in this game. I denounce it as an infernal fraud.' Major Foxworth demanded to know on what ground he made the charge. 'Why,' replied the colonel, 'Bill Simpson has just played a pair of aces that he stole out of my sleeve.'"

A correspondent of the Missouri Republican, writing from Joplin, says: "Everywhere people seem to be too much engrossed in other things to give much attention to politics. Ask Republicans who they are for for president and they say, 'I don't know.' Ask Democrats, and eight out of ten will say 'Tilden.' Tilden and Hendricks; any way, Tilden! Ask who they are for for Governor, and a like proportion will say, 'Phelps! He was the best we ever had, and we want him again.' Suggest to them that Phelps has had honors enough, and they answer: 'We are not trying to add to his honors; we want him on our own account; it is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to Missouri to have Phelps Governor.' This talk is as prevalent north of the river as it is south. Here and there an ardent admirer of Gen. Marshall is found, and he will not be without friends in the convention."

His Mission to Ohio Meets With Disastrous Results.

CONFEDERATE X ROADS.
 (Wick in the State of Kentucky.)
 Aug. 6, 1883.

Things being somewhat quiet at the Corners I concluded to go over into Ohio to do nothing toward helping the sturdy Democracy of the pivotal State in Kentucky in this Fall. Bascom will win that I should go, every minute I spend away from the Corners lessens the amount that he charges to me for likker, and I felt that I must go to help bring the mossbox of Ohio back to their allegiance. Our candidate in Ohio has a record that needs a good deal of explaining to the average Democrat. Like a kickin gun, there is great danger in Judge Hoadly's rear. The best reasons for votin agin him kin be found in his own speeches uv 10 years ago.

The first pint I struck was Peterville, in the Southern part uv the State. I wuz reserved with open arms, ez every troo spose of Democracy is in that sort uv a village. The place is very like the Corners, the biznis consistin mostly uv a grocery or two, and the inhabitants bein, ez a rool, state-men whose wives do the heft uv the work while they are devisin ways and means to pay off the Nashel debt, leavin agin sign posts or sittin contemplatively on dry goods boxes whittlin the rosy hours away. In such places Democracy alluz runs rampant. Ther is whers we git our heaviest majorities.

The yooosul meetin wuz called, and after a conference with the principel grocery keepers it wuz decided that I should speak upon the infamous Scott Law which taxes the 'sloon keepers $200 for the privilege uv gettin mortgages upon their nabor's farms. I accedid to their request, for ther aint anything wick kin so stir the blood uv the avrige Democracy ez a law wick tends to embarrase the dispenser uv the elixir uv life and hamper them in any way.

It wuz a good meetin. Ther wuz present all the elizens uv the village and all the farmers from the kenty adjacent, and I hed good hopes uv sowin seed wick would bring forth harvest in October.

I fortified myself with fax an figgers and opened out onto em.

"Feller citizens," I commenced, "Democracy is the champion uv hoo-man rite—that is fur wite men."

"Rah!" yelled the meetin in chorus.

"Democracy holds that every man hez the sole rite to controle himself, and that no law wick sez wat a man shol or shol not do is an infringement on God-given rite."

"Rah!"

"A Republikan Legislaher last Winter committed an outrage on the Democracy. It passed the Scott law. Wat is the Scott law, my friends? It is a law wick imposed a tax onto the keepers uv wet groceries, $100 for the sellin uv beer, and $200 for sellin uv other likkers, wick is just ez necessary ez beer for the sustenance uv the hoo-man family."

The awjence groaned in chorus.

"Wat is the result? Under Democrat-ic rool the 'sloons went on quiet, doin ther legitim biznis. No Tax Collector cum around to disturb em, yoo cood all cum in when yoo pleased and git yer sustenance, and things wuz happy and pleasant. Wat is it now? Ther is so 'sloons in this County, and the Republikan feends has taxed em $200 each, which they hav paid. Ther is to-day $16,000 in the County Treazy, wick hevbin wrung out uv ther biznis, and—"

Up sprung a old farmer from a adjin in township.

"Do I understand," sez he, "that the Scott law hez collected $16,000 from the 'sloon biznis?"

"That's the size uv it," sez I.

"Does that money go to payin the taxes uv the County?"

"It do," I replied, "$16,000 wrung from the 'sloons."

"Ef figgers don't lie, that's about one-fifth uv all the taxes the County hez to pay. My taxes arose this wuz about $100 a year and next year I shol hev only about $80 to pay, which is 20 per cent off."

And then, this mesenary old wretch yelled:

"RAH FOR THE SCOTT LAW!"

"Yoo musn't rah for the Scott Law," I yelled to the infuriated loonatics.

"Yoo ain't here to rah for the Scott Law but agin it. We are gon to vote to repeal the Scott Law."

I mite ez well hev talked to the north wind. Every blattid tax-payer in the awjence jined him, and they all got to ther feet and remark in chorus that personal liberty wuz a blessed thing, and in any struggle fur the maintenance uv personal liberty they'd send substitutes, with muskets on ther shoulders, ez willingly ez they did fur the maintenance uv the Toonyun, doirin the late fratricidal struggle, but mezmuch ez they cood gift all the likker they mite want at the rezler price, five cents fur beer and ten cents fur whisky rates, they coodn't see how personal rite wuz interfered with at all. But the makin the 'sloons pay one-fifth uv the taxes wuz a sweet boon wick coodent be too hily commended.

And instid uv passin resolooshens condemnin the Scott law, blast me ef they didn't pass one endurin it.

It wuz in vane I attempted to stem the tide. I hed prevayly insisted that Judge Hoadly was committed agin the law, and that the only way to qia away with it wuz to vote for him, and so they passed resolooshens endorin Judge Foraker ez a man uv ability and rectitud uv carikter, wick wuz a ornament to the State, and in spite uv all I cood do they adjourned with three cheers fur him.

It is sad, but it is so. Poor, weak humanity can't hold to a principle when it conflicts with interests. I ain't shoor but we shol hev to git our State Comitty together and put a supplemental plank in our platform endorin the Scott law and claimin that we are the originaters uv it.

We are alluz several months behind in gittin forred. We shood hev caught onto this sooner. Come to think uv it, a seven uv one-fifth uv the taxes is a rather big thing for the tax-payers, and now that I put my gigantic inteler on to it, I reely don't see wat 'special interest the man wick drinks likker hez in the man wick sells it. I shol go back to Kentucky wher ther is no sich nonsense ez taxin likker, and wher the fact that the consumer buys entirely upon upon credit gives the 'sloon man a hold onto em wick he can't break. That's the kind uv a kentry for me.

SEPTEMBER'S SURPRISES.

A Lively Fall in Passenger Rates, and Events in Store will Greatly Exceed Expectations.

The busy note of preparation in Baltimore for the coming Summer Night's Carnival is heard on all sides, and the city appears to be waking up as never before to the determination to make this year's celebration certainly the biggest event of the character ever conceived of this or any other country. The novel features being steadily added to the already most brilliant programme speaks strongly of the striking talent possessed among the good citizens who spend day and night in planning and executing.

The city illuminations promise to be upon a most extensive scale, and almost altogether in the electric line. Many buildings will be literally ablaze with bright lights in all colors, and it is proposed to demonstrate in hitherto untried fields what can be done with electricity.

The harbor display on the opening night will be as unique as possible to imagine, and a veritable fairy scene. Every description of light will be introduced, and the pyrotechnical features novel and of great scope of design. Baltimore, as the nearest Atlantic seaport to an enormous section of country, will show her unsurpassed harbor to the multitude after a fashion never before dreamed of. The reception of Lord Baltimore on the night in question, with all its attendant effects, will be something to remember for years, and amply repay a journey even across the continent. Pageant night will also prove another memorable occasion, for never in European or American cities has a parade of such magnitude or of such remarkable richness and novelty been attempted. Last year's pageant was conceded by New Orleans mystic experts themselves, as well as those from Mobile, Memphis, Galveston and St. Louis, to have been beyond all comparison the grandest pageant ever witnessed in this country. If such was the unanimous verdict last year it would be difficult to measure the limit of praise this year, as the pageant, now in its finishing stage, is manifestly superior larger, grander, and in every way finer than that of 1882. It will require a regiment of men and horses to put it upon the street—upward of thirteen hundred men and two hundred and sixty odd horses. Thirty thousand dollars would not begin to cover the expense of this one display. From this prospective visitors may glean some idea of what is in store for them. Not only will expectation during sojourn in the city the second week in September be more than realized, but travel to and from will be looked after with most painstaking care.

The Baltimore and Ohio, not content with making the exceptionally low rate of half fare, or one regular fare for the round trip from all stations on its great system, but has arranged a series of excursions which will afford the greatest possible facilities for enjoyment. The visitor cannot indeed find a single point to criticize, for should he so choose he need not have an hour unoccupied during his entire week's pleasure hunting. What with trips to Harper's Ferry, to Old Point Comfort, to Fortress Monroe, to Mount Vernon, to Luray Caverns, to Washington, and the Orle in Baltimore, the man who could complain would certainly growl if he had the earth. The B. & O., with characteristic enterprise, issued an elegantly engraved programme, and which can be had for the mere trouble of an application to any of its representatives or at any of its offices throughout the country.

The B. & O. excursions announced for september afford opportunities for pleasure seeking unprecedented of late years. With the solidity of organization maintained by the pool of the eastern lines and the rules of maintaining rates so rigidly observed, half fare for any event is a big thing, and no telling when it will be offered again.
